Duluth Goes to Broadway!

Saturday, April 18th

$219/person*

Includes a private brunch at Boat Club Restaurant, round trip motor coach transportation, a phenomenal main floor seat at the Ordway Theatre, and an on-board snack.*

9:30am brunch – 11am departure to St. Paul – 8pm arrival back at Fitger's

You'll start the day with a wonderful private Brunch buffet at the beautiful Boat Club Restaurant inside the historic Fitger's Inn (parking available at Fitger's parking ramp off Superior Street). We'll then load a deluxe motor coach for the ride to the historic Ordway Theatre in downtown St. Paul for a performance like no other. The Last Ship, featuring multiple Grammy Award winner Sting, is an epic tale of community, hope, and a great act of collective defiance. When a sailor named Gideon Fletcher returns home after seventeen years at sea, tensions between past and future flare in both his family and his town. The local shipyard is closing, and no one knows what will come next. Picket lines are drawn as foreman Jackie (Sting) and his wife Peggy fight to hold their community together. With an outstanding score inspired by Sting's 1991 album The Soul Cages and his own childhood experiences, this new musical is personal, political, and passionate. Follow the performance, we'll board our motor coach for our trip back to Duluth, with an on board complimentary light snack.

Additional parking rates may apply at the Fitger's complex.
